JUDGE'S COMMENTS

'A deep, wine-coloured drink reminiscent of pinot noir. The aroma is earthy and fresh, with blackcurrant notes singing through. The flavour is beautifully fruity, and unmistakably blackcurrant, bursting into life at the back of the tongue. We enjoyed the perfumed, floral undertones in here too, and felt that they very much complemented the fruit. The texture is rich and accomplished. The alcohol proportion has also been expertly done, we feel, and keeps that sweetness in check. Bravo. ' - Guild of Fine Food

- Using surplus fruit that would go to waste.
- Disposing of our spent grain to an anaerobic digester which is converted into gas for Tayport.
- Installing a more efficient cooling system into our distillation process.
- Reducing our plastic within our packaging on our bottle and in deliveries.

CHARITABLE CAUSES

This year, Mary will be running the Edinburgh Marathon and raising awareness and fundraising for 'My Name's Doddie'. Duncan, Kecia and Mary have been completing Doddie Aid during January and February to help raise awareness and funds.
